

This letter is to introduce my services and ask how to be added to your list of music providers.

I am a solo pianist, and in addition to solo piano music I provide the authentic sound of a professional jazz trio playing standards, jazz and pop as instrumental music.

Each of my jazz-trio instrument parts is performed by me -- I perform the bass, guitar and drum parts beforehand, and then use technology to re-perform them in real time, along with my live piano playing, at your event. I have been performing in this way since the mid-80's. Over the years I have developed a personal playing style with each instrument, resulting in a trio sound that is as genuine as it would be from three individuals playing together.

I am very active in performing for the senior community. I am currently performing regularly at 21 senior-oriented locations, and occasionally at eight others. I am currently a Preferred Vendor of four golf/country clubs in the Bay area, and I have performed for events at eight other clubs as well as at most of the major San Francisco and San Jose hotels.

I can provide more than a dozen references. My references will tell you that I arrive dependably and on-time, I am responsive to staff and residents' needs, I control my sound appropriately, and that my music evokes fond memories and good feelings for your residents.

You can find some samples of my music, customer testimonials, and further information about working with me on my website, www.lee-allen-pianist.com . Best Regards,
